ANNOUNCEMENTS

AT THE DAVIS.

Masiyn Arbuckle in "The County tion to Regular Bill of Vaudeville and Mutual Movies.

For the first half of next week the management of the Davis have secured as a special attraction the Paramount feature with Maciya Arbuckle in The County Chairman," a five part comedy drama masterpace.

The play is a blending of quaint interesting the part wholesome reintracterization and wholesome ro-manue. The story deals with a rural political campaign for the office of orosecuting attorney, with a tender love story running through the strucural web. The central character is Jim Hackler, The County Chalrman, whose junior partner in law practice a Tilfora Whoeler. All the action occurs in the fictitious town of Antioch, but the principles of the drams apply equally to New York and Chicago, for equally to New York and Chicago, for the fourist of politics, like that of na-ture, makes the whole world kin. Jim Hackler and Elius Rigby had been boyhood friends, and when to-gether they enlisted in the Civil war, both loved the same girl, who how-ever, favored Jim, in the army Rigby intercepted the lovers' mail, and after the war was ended made the girl like wife, and Jim has been his politafter the war was ended made the girling wife, and Jim has been his polltical enemy ever since. In order to deseat Rigby for prosecuting attorney, facilier stories the convention of his party, and secures the nomination for Wheeler without the latter's knowledge. Jim's youthful partner is engaged to Rigby's daughter, Lucy, but despite that fact he is forced to make the race by the County Chairman. Wheeler however, promises the girl he will not make a personal fight against will not make a personal fight against her father, and lives up to that agreement until Rigby publicly assails him at a political meeting. In an outburst of anger Wheeler thereipon records the platform and vigorously denounces ligby. As a result of this action the engagement is broken.

At this juncture Hackler discovers proof that Rigby is a thief with which he is about to expose and disgrace his enemy when Righe's he is about to expose and disgrace his enemy when Rigby's wife, toward whom Jim still feels tenderly, pleads with his not to publish the facts of ner husband's guilt; and Jim's deathess love for the woman conquers his desire for racenge, Hackler, however, is equal to all emergencies. He so manipulates political wires and so contrives the young man's remantic affairs that, as the mails of hattie clears away, the County Confirman and his political protege emetric Diumphant, the former with a gualitied vergeance and the latter with also fire and his bride.

Maclyn Arburckle's impersonation of the Hackler is destined to live for many years as a perfect character.

and. It is true to life, and void of all flictifious value, and while there is ample variety of mood, feeling and burgors, there is never any faltering from the keynote of sincerity.

There will also be a splendid vaude-ville bill of three acts and Mutual Movies with one funny Keystone comedy, a full three hour show with no repeats. Matince daily at 2.10, 5 and 20 cents. Nights at 7.10, 10, 75 and 20 cents.

Big Jim Garrity This Afternoon and It

Kirk Brown and his excellent comkirk Brown and his excellent company is making a big bid for popularity with the thesaire goers of this city. The melodramatic success, Big Jim Garrity will be repeated at the matines this afternoon, and The Merchant of Venice will be the production tonight. Few of the present day actors care to attempt the portrayal of such difficult characters as Shyleck in The Merchane of Venice, which Mr. Brown presents tonight. In announcing this classic play Mr. Brown does so with the full knowledge that it is not an attempt the general production of the present of the production tonight. COLONIAL THEATER.

The Cancer and the King," Five Reels Featuring Cecil Spooner.

With all the popularity attached to the name of Cecil Spooner, and the addition of a magnificent and able cast a support, the patrons of the Colonial thester are today afforded one of the arent treats of the season. Photo-graphically the picture is a wonder, bounding in scenes of the most beau-tial type, while the acting is at all limes of the highest order. The plot deals with the roung king who is ascinated by a beautiful dancer, who is turn feels that the king's love is ciently sincers, and because af sincerity she faces great dangers n order to prove her worthiness and ave his life. At the hands of revotionists the girl receives terrible and earsh treatment, in the effort to con-eal her lover and their king. Time and time again she faces death, be-fore the revolutionists are defeated in their attempt to overthrow the throne, but the plucky girl is successful and all ends happily for all except the rioters. This picture in five reels will remain for today only. For tomorrow, Alice Joyce will be the two reel feature attraction in Cast Up by the sea. Coming Monday, Salomy Jane is six parts, featuring Beatriz Michferna.

Indigestion and constipation are two conditions closely re-lated and the cause of much phy-sical suffering.

The tendency to indulge one's appetite is general, so that most neople suffer at some time or another from rebellion of the overtaxed organs of digestion and elimination. A simple, pleas-antly effective remedy that will quickly relieve the congestion of poisonous waste and restore regularity, is the combination of simple laxative herbs with pep-sin, sold in drug stores under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This is a mild, pleasant laxative-tonic and digestant, ab-solutely free from opiates or nar-cettle drugs and has been the cotic drugs and has been the standard household remedy in countless homes for many years. A free trial bottle can be ob-tained by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell 452 Washington St., Monticello, Ilis.
